

Mr. Done offered the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
January 4th, 1830.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We propose to appoint a Joint Committee on the Library, and have, on the part of this House, named Messrs. — and — to join such gentlemen as shall be named by your honorable body, to carry into effect the object of the laws establishing a State Library.

Which was twice read; and the blank therein being filled up by the Speaker, with the names of Done, Steele and Yoe, the said message was agreed to, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Buchanan submitted the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
January 4th, 1830.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

The honorable Thomas King Carroll, of Somerset county, having been elected Governor of this State, we propose that a joint letter be written by the President of the Senate and Speaker of this House, and forwarded, by express, immediately, to inform that gentleman of his election, and to request his attendance at the seat of government, to qualify according to the constitution and form of government.

Which was twice read, agreed to, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The Clerk of the Senate delivered the following messages; which were severally read:

By the Senate, January 4th, 1830.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message on the subject of the Library, and agree to the proposal contained therein. Messrs. Herbert and Thomas are appointed to join the gentlemen named by you on this occasion.

By order,

Louis Gassaway, Clk.

By the Senate, January 4th, 1830.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing to communicate, by express, to the honorable Thomas King Carroll, of Somerset county, notice of his election as Governor of this State, and request his attendance at the seat of government, and we accede thereto.

By order,

Louis Gassaway, Clk.
